FATHER LOVE

FATHER LOVE - A SONG ABOUT THE LOVE I HAVE FOR MY CHILDREN

One of the most traumatic and painful experiences you can go through in life is losing your children. It's therefore seen for some people as the perfect punishment when a relationship involving kids is breaking up.

No-one in society can protect the children from being alienated from a father or a mother - in case the child is told that the other parent is evil or bad for them. As soon as the child takes the distance or expresses fear - all legal and social systems break down - nobody validates the reason.

This song was written from my personal experiences of losing the contact to both of my children - and the lyrics are written as a message - that I will always love them, that they will never be judged and that I am here no matter what happens.

I hope that people that are going through the same inhumane psychological abuse - will find strength in hearing my story - knowing that they are not alone.

"Every year thousands of parents lose the contact to their children - who are being used as weapons - told & taught to hate them.

A tremendous pain I personally share as a father of two sons."

THE LYRICS

In the night - I think about my sons
We have been forced apart but I know that it won't last forever
Feel your heart - while you listen to my songs
You are both on my mind and I long for the day we'll be together

No matter what they might have told you
No matter the pain they have left inside
Remember that I'll always love you
At the end of the darkness there is light

Father love
It will never disappear
- no evil can erase me
Father love
No matter what they say
- just know that they won't break me

And I know that you might be confused Cus the truth can be hard just to bare with the memories you're hiding
And I know the things you're forced to say
You were told to be part of a war you never should be fighting

No matter what they might have told you
No matter the pain they have left inside
Remember that I'll always love you
At the end of the darkness there is light

Father love
It will never disappear
- no evil can erase me
Father love
No matter what they say
- just know that they wont break me

Just hold on - let go of all your fears
You will always be loved, just be strong, tell the truth and the pain disappears

BIOGRAPHY

Having studied music, business and IT - M4D (Danish name Morten) - has a mixed profile. From childhood he played music - as a teenager he produced and wrote songs - and in 2004 he was signed for the first time.

In 2021 he experienced a parental alienation from his oldest son and later in 2023 - his youngest son was forced away from fatherhood - moving to another island far away. The label M4D MUSIC was created to be able to communicate M4D's love for his children in a difficult situation - through music.

Father Love is the first single from the forthcoming album in 2024 - expressing the emotions that many parents go through when their children are told to hate and fear them.

Besides M4D - the label M4D MUSIC are releasing the British / American singer JAKILIN and the German Pop / Rap group - Kain. Both acts are produced by M4D.
